Marvin Micklemouse and the Magic Rock:

Follow-up Activities

Mighty Marvin and his magic rock go on to have many exciting adventures. Write a story on a piece of paper or in your class journal. Tell about one of Mighty Marvin's incredible adventures. Make a picture of your story. Share your story with a class partner, a big buddy, or take it home and read it aloud to someone special in your family. The following story ideas may help you.

Story Idea Number One

Unknown to the town of Mulberry Mountain, a horde of giant killer cockroaches has invaded the foundations of Mulberry Mountain Junior School for Boys and Girls. The school is about to collapse and the killer cockroaches plan to devour all that lives and moves! Tell how Mighty Marvin and his magic rock save the school, the town, and the day!

Story Idea Number Two

Aliens from Planet XZY6897 have secretly invaded and infiltrated the town of Mulberry Mountain. Mighty Marvin's magic rock (being magic) gets wind of what's going on. Tell how Mighty Marvin and his magic rock defeat the aliens and ultimately save the day once again!

Story Idea Number Three

Maybellina Micklemouse has been mysteriously kidnapped. She's locked up in a dark cellar with only big, ugly, black spiders for company. (And that's pretty tough when you're dainty and fragile and pathetic like Maybellina.) But as usual, Mighty Marvin and his magic rock manage to devise a brilliant rescue plan and (of course) ultimately save the day once again!
